INTRODUCTION

1. The tables which follow include a summary of statistics on technical cooperation project activities of the organizational entities of the United Nations and detailed information on the Department for Development Support and Management Services (DDSMS) of the United Nations Secretariat. The information was requested by the Governing Council in its decision 79/22 of 28 June 1979. The present report has been prepared in conjunction with other reports before the Executive Board that contain basic programme data related to work financed by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and information on agency regular budget and non-UNDP extrabudgetary technical cooperation activities.

2. Financial data for the present document have been derived from the financial statements for the year ending 31 December 1993.

3. In 1993, the organizational entities of the United Nations delivered a technical cooperation programme of $208.9 million, compared with $243.3 million in 1992. Details are provided in table 1.

4. Of this amount, DDSMS delivered a programme of $126.3 million. Projects financed by UNDP represented $63.5 million; projects financed by the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) accounted for $12.1 million; $42.5 million was financed by trust funds; and $8.2 million was expended under the United Nations regular programme of technical cooperation.

5. On a geographical basis, the DDSMS-executed programme in 1993 included expenditures of $55.2 million in Africa; $28.6 million in Asia and the Pacific; $23.2 million for interregional and global; $12.1 million in Arab States; $6.1 million in the Americas; and $1.1 million in Europe. Project delivery in Africa remained the largest, with a 44 per cent share of the total delivery.

6. The distribution of project expenditures has changed somewhat from prior years, in keeping with evolving priorities and the new organizational structure for the substantive branches of DDSMS. A summary of the data is as follows: natural resources and energy planning, $29.9 million; development policies and planning, $24.8 million; sustainable development and environmental management, $17.4 million; statistics, $14.9 million; governance and public administration, $12.9 million; public finance and enterprise management, $6.4 million; population, $6.0 million; United Nations Educational and Training Programme for Southern Africa, $5.3 million; human resources and social development, $4.4 million; national execution and capacity-building, $2.1 million; advisory services and training, $1.6 million; and social development (Vienna), $0.5 million. The work in natural resources and energy planning comprised some 24 per cent of the $126.3 million total; development policies and planning was second and sustainable development and environmental management was third, with 20 per cent and 14 per cent respectively.

7. On a component basis, DDSMS delivery in 1993 included $69.3 million for project personnel, $17.6 million for training, $17.1 million for subcontracted services, $14.4 million for equipment and $7.9 million for miscellaneous expenses.

8. Information on participation in the programme from developing countries and by women is as follows: equipment purchased in developing countries totalled $3.2 million, or 41 per cent of the total. Of the 1,157 international project personnel serving during the year, 615, or 53 per cent, were from developing countries and 130 or 11 per cent, were female. Of the total of 3,364 training placements made during the year, 1,323 or 39 per cent, were for study in developing countries. The trainees themselves numbered 3,323 and of these 743, or 22 per cent, were female.
